Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Debtor 1 Carlton Roark Case number (if known)_____

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page. The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete. Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

List Others to Be Notified About a Debt That You Already Listed

Part 3: 5. Use this page only if you have others to be notified about your bankruptcy, for a debt that you already listed in Parts 1 or 2. For example, if a collection agency is trying to collect from you for a debt you owe to someone else, list the original creditor in Parts 1 or 2, then list the collection agency here. Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). If you believe that you are exempted from a presumption of abuse because you do not have primarily consumer debts or because of qualifying military service, complete and file Statement of Exemption from Presumption of Abuse Under § 707(b)(2) (Official Form 122A-1Supp) with this form.

Part 1: Calculate Your Current Monthly Income

- 1. What is your marital and filing status? Check one only.
 - Not married. Fill out Column A, lines 2-11.
 - Married and your spouse is filing with you. Fill out both Columns A and B, lines 2-11.
 - Married and your spouse is NOT filing with you. You and your spouse are:
 - Living in the same household and are not legally separated. Fill out both Columns A and B, lines 2-11.
 - Living separately or are legally separated. Fill out Column A, lines 2-11; do not fill out Column B. By checking this box, you declare under penalty of perjury that you and your spouse are legally separated under nonbankruptcy law that applies or that you and your spouse are living apart for reasons that do not include evading the Means Test requirements. 11 U.S.C. § 707(b)(7)(B).

Fill in the average monthly income that you received from all sources, derived during the 6 full months before you file this bankruptcy case. 11 U.S.C. § 101(10A). If the amount of your monthly income varied during the 6 months, add the income for all 6 months and divide the total by 6. Fill in the result. Do not include any income amount more than once. For example, if both spouses own the same rental property, put the income from that property in one column only. If you have nothing to report for any line, write $0 in the space.

RE: Individual Chapter 7 Bankruptcy pro se filing

United States Bankruptcy Court (Southern District of California) 325 West F Street San Diego, California 92101

To Whom it May Concern:

Given the lack of any meaningful outstanding debt in this filing for Chapter 7 bankruptcy, I thought an explanation would be necessary.

I am only filing this Chapter 7 bankruptcy to try and remove a non-dischargeable, oppressive and unjustly levied judgment of approximately $1MM that was placed against me by San Diego County Credit Union (SDCCU). I intend however to reaffirm all other debts and obligations.

I fully suspect that SDCCU, the judgment creditor will object to the discharge of this obligation and will file for an adversary proceeding. This is also the only reason for my pro se filing. I cannot afford an attorney to litigate an adversary proceeding.

If SDCCU files for an adversary proceeding, I am praying that I will then finally be afforded the opportunity to present evidence to at least the Bankruptcy Court as to why the San Diego Superior Court should not have imputed willful intent and malice (much less issued the judgment against me at all) to make this judgment non-dischargeable. This non-dischargeable judgment was based on the concealment of exculpatory evidence exonerating me and false statements of material facts made against me in court under the cloak of litigation privilege by the attorney representing my co-defendant and former employer, North Island Financial Credit Union (NIFCU). As a result of the foregoing, I was hit with terminating sanctions for the alleged spoliation of evidence which stripped me of my right to a trial before my defense attorneys could introduce any evidence. The voluminous amount of evidence that was withheld for trial by my defense attorneys (who incidentally were paid by my former co-defendant and employer's insurance carrier) was therefore not "in the papers" and consequently could never be introduced to the court or in my appeals. This is my final and only opportunity to discharge this debt before my family (who depend entirely on me) and I are overcome by financial ruin and made forever destitute. We cannot have a fresh start without the full discharge of this judgment.

This outstanding judgment and the very public internet links to it have also made it impossible for me to secure employment despite an otherwise stellar reputation in the industry .

Respectfully,

Carlton Roark
